

We Follow Jesus

Revelation 11:7-13

We are the followers of Jesus Christ,
His disciples,
His friends,
His brothers and sisters,
His body,
His bride.

As we are true to Him,
we will be treated like Him by the world and
by You, Father.

In this world we will share His rejection,
His scorn,
His humiliation.

We will be disbelieved,
misunderstood,
mocked,
falsely accused, and unfairly treated.

We will walk with Him through suffering
to the cross,
to the tomb.

But as You raised Him,
You will raise us to eternal life.
Death can never touch us again.

In Him we will share
His triumph,
His glory,
His authority,
His constant and complete oneness with You, our Father.

Looking to Him,
seeing Him,
we leave everything else behind,
eagerly and completely.

We only want to know Christ, gain Christ, and
be found forever in Christ.
