

Whose Child Are You?

Revelation 12:1-6

Note how God's people are envisioned
in Revelation 12:1 (NASB):
*a woman clothed with the sun,
with the moon under her feet and a crown of twelve stars on her head.*

To human eyes,
we all appear to be some similar mixture of
good and bad,
wisdom and ignorance,
love and selfishness,
beauty and ugliness.

But God sees much more.
The Eternal One is not locked into the narrow now, and
He sees beneath our carefully crafted shell.
He already sees who we believers are becoming in
His holy Son,
Jesus.
He sees us in
the holiness,
the glory, and
the authority of the Living Christ.
He sees us through the eyes of a proud and loving Father.
He sees Himself growing within us.

He also sees within unbelievers.
The Jews of Jesus' day were considered
the holiest people of their day.
But Jesus called them children of Satan.
He said their hearts and lives already reflected the lying, murderous ways of their father, the Devil.

Our identities are rooted in worlds
high above our knowing,
in beings
more holy or
more wicked than we can imagine.
To eternal, all-seeing eyes,
we are who we are following.

We are who we are trusting.
We are already more than simple physical creatures of this earth.
We are in Jesus Christ, or
we are children of the Devil.
We are more glorious than we could ever dream,
or more evil.
There is no middle ground.

Choose your daily relationship with Jesus Christ
very thoughtfully,
very carefully and intentionally.
You are choosing your eternal character.
You are choosing your eternal destiny.

Hymn: All in Christ

© 2016 by Ken Bible, c/o LNWhymns.com