

What Will Matter Then?

Revelation 18:9-24

It's easy to become infected by the values of this world:

- The signature of a famous person is worth thousands.
- A vase is worth a year's salary.
- A single painting is worth $100,000,000 or more.
- For the applause of people, many will gladly invest an entire life.

But when the world is on fire,
how much will they be worth?

When you are drawing your final breaths,
what will matter then?

Those who have disposed of the belongings of a departed loved know that the physical goods they leave behind, belongings they may have treasured,
are now just stuff.
Getting rid of it is just one more chore.

The Bible mocks those who worship false gods:
False gods can't carry us.
We have to carry them.

Trust,
love, and serve the God who will carry you.
