

Prepare for Advent: Joy

Joy to the world!
The Lord has come!

Father, on this third Sunday of Advent, we celebrate good news of great joy (Luke 2:10).

Your Son has come to us, and we rejoice!

He has poured out on us the oil of gladness. (Isaiah 61:3)

He has shared with us the fullness of His joy,
the joy that He finds in You alone. (John 17:13).

He is mercy and complete forgiveness.

He is sufficiency in every situation.

He is full and unbroken union with You.

He is the same
yesterday,
today, and
forever,

so He brings a joy that
trouble,
sorrow, and
death itself cannot destroy.

But this great joy is only a down-payment on the joy that is to come.

When we see Jesus for all that He is,
our joy in Him will be full and forever.

O come, Lord Jesus!
We are waiting!
