

You Come to Me

You come
    comforting me,
    forgiving me,
    recreating me,
    giving me a destiny.

You come
    teaching me,
    healing me,
    nourishing me, and
    sharing Yourself with me.

Though infinitely above me, You come to be
    all around me,
    all within me,
    ever before me,
    ever beside me.

Almighty, all-holy, all-loving God,
    You wrap me in Your presence, enabling me to speak and
    live and
    be like You.

Praise to You!
