

Reflection on Psalm 19

O Father, sovereign Creator, the heavens proclaim Your glory –
Your greatness,
Your goodness,
Your unfailing presence with us.

Day after day,
night after night they speak of You and
sing of You.

Without a word,
without a sound they fill the whole earth with the wonders of Your wisdom.

Father, You also share this wonderful wisdom through Your written Word.

Your Word is
perfect,
right,
clean, and
true.

It turns us to You, bringing light to our eyes and joy to our hearts.

Endless gold is worthless
compared to its treasures.

Father, apply its precious truths to my life.
Point out my hidden faults, I pray.
Guard me from the approach of sin, whether subtle or aggressive.

May every word from my mouth and every murmur of my heart
be pleasing to You,
my Creator and
my Redeemer.
