

Christ in Psalm 30

Jesus, You exalted the Father with all Your being!
For when You had made Yourself helpless and defenseless, He rescued You, raised You to life, and exalted You to His right hand.
And, Lord, in all these glorious blessings,
I am in You!

Your weeping lasted only for a night, but joy came in the morning.
And what a morning!
You praised Your Father for His unfailing goodness.
And as You praise Him, my Lord,
I am in You!

You ascended back to Your Father and are now sharing
His joy,
His presence,
His glory forever and ever.
And as You share in Him, Jesus,
I am in You!

Our mourning will soon be turned to dancing, and our rags to robes of unbounded joy.
We will praise and worship our glorious Father with hearts and lives and voices.
And best of all, my Savior, I will be fully and forever
in You!
