

Jonah stumbled at the same thing that tripped up those who knew the earthly Jesus: Your gracious, incredible, unlimited love. You are the vineyard owner who goes out seeking workers with only one hour left in the day, then pays them a full-day's wage. You are the One who sends His only Son to a bunch of murderous thieves in the idealistic hope of reconciling with them. You are the self-giving God! You are the Holy One who proudly calls Himself our Father.
