

Emmaus Road

Now that same day two...were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem. They were talking with each other about everything that had happened. As they talked and discussed these things with each other, Jesus himself came up and walked along with them; but they were kept from recognizing him. He asked them, "What are you discussing together as you walk along?" They stood still, their faces downcast.

"Jesus of Nazareth...was a prophet, powerful in word and deed before God and all the people. The chief priests and our rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death, and they crucified him; but we had hoped that he was the one who was going to redeem Israel." (Luke 24:13-17, 19-21, NIV)

Like these two disciples,
we are often distressed at God's actions.
We don't understand what He is doing...
or what He is not doing.

Why?

Because we don't understand which problem He is addressing.

We think the problem is our circumstances or "the Romans"
or some other person.

The problem God is addressing is us.

The problem is our failure to seek and trust
only Him.
