

You Are Calling Me to Yourself

My dear Father,
You are always calling me to Yourself.

Every joy,
every blessing,
every struggle,
every need
calls me
 to turn to You more constantly, to trust You more simply,
 to love You like a child loves her father.

Everything You do and every word You speak, whether of instruction,
 challenge,
 comfort, or
 rebuke,
is a tender, personal invitation:

Come closer.
I love you.
Know Me.
Trust Me.
