

Eternal Day

John 16:16-22

“A little while, and you will no longer see Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me.

“Truly, truly, I say to you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will grieve, but your grief will be turned into joy. Whenever a woman is in labor she has pain, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she no longer remembers the anguish because of the joy that a child has been born into the world. Therefore you too have grief now; but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.”
(John 16:16, 20-22, NASB)

Eternal life begins when we trust in Jesus Christ, and it never ends!

From that moment on we have

joy in the presence of Father and Son:
the joy of sharing Jesus' intimate relationship with the Father,
the joy of their Holy Spirit with us and in us,
the assurance that at just the right time,
the Father will send the Son back to gather us to Himself.

As we wait for that day,
every taste of God produces a hunger for more of Him.
Our joy in His presence now feeds a longing for His full,
immediate,
face-to-face presence.

His daily goodness reminds us that we are only in the early morning of an eternal day of life and joy and fulfillment in Him.

Listen & Sing: “Good Morning, All Who Trust in Christ!”
Visit: www.LNWymns.com/GoodMorningAllWhoTrustInChrist