

Beatitudes

Matthew 5:1-12

In Your presence, Father

almighty,
all-wise,
all-loving,

what is

natural,
logical, and
blessed

is

an ungrasping Spirit,
mourning our sin and separation from You,
humility before You,
hungering and thirsting for Your righteousness, sharing Your mercy with others,
spreading Your peace,
persevering, even rejoicing through temporary persecution, knowing that it puts us in the company of Your dearest saints.

For as we live this way, we are living in response to You, in harmony with You, and sharing more fully in You.
