

God in Christ

Hebrews 1:1-3

God strictly prohibited all attempts to make an image of Himself from created things.

Any such attempt was doomed to diminish and corrupt His transcendent magnificence.

All the far-flung universe, with its breath-taking vistas, endless variety, and
jaw-dropping detail,
could only muster
a fleeting glimpse,
a faint whisper of Him.

But then all His infinite glory, unfiltered and undiminished, blazed from a simple Jewish peasant.

This Galilean carpenter fully embodied the completeness,
the wholeness,
the unedited richness of the very being of Almighty God.

In Christ all the fullness of God Himself dwells in a human body, and we are full and complete in Him. (Colossians 2:9-10, para.)

Jesus Christ is God's promise to the human race – God's proof – that all the corruption of our sad history has grown from our willful separation from Him.
Re-united with our Creator in Jesus Christ,
our future,
our sure destiny is glorious beyond all imagining.
