

Our Father's Discipline

Hebrews 12:4-11

Father,
help me to receive Your gifts gladly and gratefully,
even though they come through hardship.

Help me to receive
 Your teaching,
 Your shaping,
 Your discipline,
even when they involve
 pain and struggle.

Compassionate Father,
You never send
 evil
into our lives.
And everything You allow to come to us You always,
 always,
 always,
use for our good (Romans 8:28).
You are making us more like Your glorious Son,
 Jesus Christ.
You are eternally blessing us with the riches of being –
of being completely and forever
like You and one with You and
in You,
 Father, Son, and Spirit.

You are the perfect Father.
You faithfully train Your dear children through both word and

experience,
both pleasant and
unpleasant.

Your discipline is all-wise and all-loving.

You withhold nothing that Your burning love longs to give.

Father, I am Yours.

I love You!

I trust You!

In You I can truly

Rejoice ALWAYS

and

in EVERYTHING give thanks (1 Thessalonians 5:16, 18, NASB).

*Do not complain when your loving Father allows your faith to be tested.
He is strengthening your essential, life-giving connection with Him.*
