

Reflection on Hebrews 6:19-20

This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and reliable and one which enters within the veil, where Jesus has entered as a forerunner for us, having become a high priest forever according to the order of Melchizedek (Hebrews 6:19-20, NASB).

What does an anchor do?
It grips immovable ground so that when all the storms of this world attack us and pressure us and
 try to blow us away,
we are held steady.

So what is the immovable ground to which we anchor ourselves?

It is the
 unchanging,
 immovable,
 eternal,
 almighty
GOD,
 the I AM,
 the source and ground of all Being and all reality.

And what is the anchor that grips Him and will never let go?

Our anchor is the hope He has given us.
This is not the weak “hope so” of human hope, but the absolute confidence, the full assurance
that God is all He says He is and will do all He says He will do.

His Word is sovereign.
 He speaks, and
 His will becomes reality.

His promises
never change,
never weaken with time, and never fail.

Anchor yourself to what cannot and will not move.

Anchor yourself to Almighty God.

Hymn: Anchored in God

© 2020 Ken Bible, LNW@LNWhymns.com.