

Reflection on Psalm 12

Father, our words betray our hidden hearts.

“The mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart.” (Matthew 12:34, NASB)

Selfish hearts speak selfish words.

They try to hide themselves in lies and smooth talk.

They deceive, not only those around them,
but themselves.

Their entire lives become a lie,
always trying to hide
who they really are.

But Father, You always speak grace and truth.

Your Words are
pure.

Your Words are
light.

Your Words are
love.

By Your Holy Spirit,
speak Your Words
in us.

Speak Your Words
through us.

Speak Your Words through all that we say and all that we do.

Speak Your love through
our love,
holy, compassionate God.
