

Reflection on Psalm 76

We know You, the
almighty,
all-wise,
all-loving God.

And You personally live within us and
among us.

We are immersed in You.
O Father, what a privilege!
How can we help but rejoice?
How can we help but trust You?
And the more we trust You,
the more we rejoice!

When we see You face-to-face – and You promise that we will –
we can only imagine the joy!
After a lifetime of waiting and
longing,
we will stand face-to-face with the dearest Desire of our Hearts.
What inexpressible joy!
And it will never end!

But O God, what sheer terror
when those who have rejected You
stand face-to-face with You,
the One they have
ignored and
denied!
Too late!
I can't imagine the gripping horror and
the wailing!

So how should we,
Your people
respond to You for
all You are,
in all Your magnificence?

All You ask is that we come to You as
little children,
    joyful in You,
    trusting You,
    obeying You.

So Father, we come!
Thank You!
Praise to You!
