

Reflection on Psalm 115

Father, You alone are worthy of all
honor,
glory, and
trust.

For You alone are Yahweh, source of all being,
Sovereign Creator,
unfailing love, and
absolute dependability.

You are the Maker.

You are the Almighty Doer.

You speak.

You listen.

You touch.

You feel.

You move.

Sovereign and
unhindered,

You do everything You desire, and always in perfect love.

All other “gods”, everything else we
trust,
seek, and
desire,
are nothing.

They are simply earthbound delusions, born of our weakness and ignorant self-centeredness.

As we trust them,
seek them, and
desire them,
we pour our lives into
emptiness and vanity.

We join our idols in their complete nothingness and eternal silence.

*Not to us, O Lord, not to us,
but to You be all glory (Psalm 115:1, para.)*
