

Reflection on Psalm 142

Desperate,
alone,
overwhelmed –
 how many of God's saints
 have walked that dark road!

Jesus Himself walked that road.
He could have prayed Psalm 142
 in Gethsemane.
 Perhaps He did.

As with Christ,
when no one understands,
 the Father understands.
When no one seems to care,
 God Himself shares our pain.

And faith
 keeps holding on.
Faith
 endures.
God's life
 endures.
God's love
 endures.

Then when the brief period of suffering is over,
God's people celebrate together
 His triumph and
 His unfailing goodness.
