

Reflection on Psalm 143

Father, I need You!
Pursued,
pressured,
crushed,
overwhelmed,
stumbling around in the darkness,
I need You!

Though I can't feel You
or see You now,
I remember.
I remember times past when
I desperately needed You, and You came.
O Father, I need You now!

I take refuge in
You.
I hide myself in
You.
Teach me.
Teach me how to please You.
Teach me to do Your will.
You know what is best.
Teach me to trust You
in every situation,
no matter what comes.

You are goodness.
You are unfailing love.
You are absolute dependability.
You always do what is right.
Always.

Father, I need You!
