

Reflection on Habakkuk 3:1-15

Almighty God,
I am a speck of dust compared to the mighty elements of Your creation –
 the mountains,
 the oceans,
 the uncharted vastness of space.
And all this sprawling creation is merely the fringes of Your robe.
Its majestic symphony is only a faint whisper of You (Job 26:14).
You are awesome beyond my comprehension,
 wise beyond my understanding,
 magnificent beyond any earthly comparison, and infinite in time,
 in mystery, and in goodness.

What's more, You are not confined to theories,
 books, and
 imaginations.
You are living,
 active, and
 powerful,
sovereign in all
 time and space,
the central player on the stage of history.
You conceive,
 You plan,
 You work
 on behalf of those who trust You.

I cannot grasp You or explain You, and I dare not limit You to my small, self-centered viewpoint.
I stand, I bow in awe of You!
I simply, humbly believe that

You will always be who You have always been,
You will always do what You have always done, and You will finish all You have started.

Day by day,
 in darkness and in light,
I confess that You are Almighty God.

I look to You.
I wait on You.
I long for You.
I hope in You.
