

Open Your Eyes

*The heavens are telling of the glory of God;
And their expanse is declaring the work of His hands.
(Psalm 19:1, NASB)*

*O Lord, how many are Your works!
In wisdom You have made them all;
The earth is full of Your possessions.
(Psalm 104:24, NASB)*

Open your eyes!
Open your mind and your heart!
The world around you is constantly revealing the omnipotent,
transcendent,
magnificent God.

See His power!
Wonder at His infinite wisdom!
Taste His goodness!
Rest in His faithfulness!
See your God!

Even in its present corruption,
His creation is whispering the promise of all that will be very soon.
All creation will be freed from its bondage to death,
and we will hear the Creator joyfully proclaim, “Look! I am making EVERYTHING NEW!” (Revelation 21:5).
Watch the sunrise and imagine THAT sunrise.
Drink in the beauty of a single flower and imagine an entire world of such splendor.
Imagine the Creator pouring out all His love,
all His glory,
all His joy
on His perfect, forever world.

Hymn: Creation Praise