

Transcendent and Immanent

O God, You are transcendent, infinitely above us in every way,
separate from this entire creation,
of another realm,
an unbounded Spirit being unhindered by space and time.

Your seraphim, Your “burning ones” celebrate Your infinite exaltedness, Your separate-ness,
Your utter purity,
crying to each other
instinctively,
unceasingly,

“Holy, holy, holy is the Lord Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory.” (Isaiah 6:3, NIV)

But, O our God, You are also immanent, personally,
intimately,
completely,
constantly
with us,
in the fullest sense,
with all You are.

Above us,
around us,
encompassing us,
infilling us,
transcendent,
yet immanent!

Praise and eternal worship be to You alone,
Magnificent God!
