

As with Christ

Father, Jesus had only one focus,
 one goal,
 one ambition:
 PLEASING YOU.

For Him,
You were the heart of all reality.
You were the source of all He said and did and
 His unshakable security.
You were the reason for every decision and
 His answer to every question.
You were the foundation of His very being.

You were the joy that motivated His glad obedience and the object of His highest love.
You were the goodness, the greatness, the glory that captured His heart.
You were truth.
You were light.
You were the pure love
 that enflamed all His love.

O Father, may it be so for me!
