

Walk through the woods and look at all the plants and animals. Realize that God has taken each one through the long winter months without the aid of grocery stores or central heating. He has faithfully supplied everything they need. Be assured that He will take you through your “winters” as well.

© 2025 by Ken Bible, LNW@LNWhymns.com.