

Ambassadors of His Love

Christ's love compels us, because we are convinced that one died for all, and therefore all died. And he died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves but for him who died for them and was raised again. All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation. We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. (2 Corinthians 5:14-15, 18, 20a, NIV)

The mighty,
amazing,
lavish,
burning,
boundless love of Christ is making His appeal to a dark and dying world through us.

Our daily lives are
His face,
His voice, and
His hands.

We are His ambassadors, sent to show the world that He is indeed complete forgiveness and tender compassion.
