LEAD-IN: When the Lord calls us into His service, may we respond as Mary did:
"I am the Lord's servant. May it be to me as you have said."
(from Luke 1:38, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Difficult Tasks

Do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. (Matthew 6:34)

Do you have a difficult task? Perhaps you feel physically or mentally ill-equipped to handle the duty. Or perhaps you have a natural aversion to the work.

Don't think about it ahead of time. When the time comes to do it, commit it to God: "Lord, I cannot do this unless you enable me." Remind God that it is His business and His work, and you are just His obedient servant.

Then proceed, trusting Him for the strength and ability to do it.

Don't fret about unpleasant duties or cling to pleasant ones. Do every task out of love for God, as a personal service to Him.
