LEAD-IN: *"Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.
(Matthew 6:9-13, NIV)*

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

The Fruit of Relationship

I am always with you; you hold me by my right hand. (Psalm 73:23, NIV)

There is no life happier or more full of delight than the life spent in constant fellowship with God.

As we speak to Him freely, as we trust Him for everything, as every deed is done for Him, a relationship grows. We come to know the Living God in a personal way. Though our daily life is outwardly as ordinary as ever, it overflows with acts of love and worship, contrition and trust, petition and thanksgiving.

Yes, life in God is rich with blessings. But don't pursue Him for the good that He gives. Practice His presence for His sake. Come to Him because you love Him and trust Him and desire to please Him in all you do.
