LEAD-IN: "Do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more important than food, and the body more important than clothes? Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?"
(Matthew 6:25-26, NIV)

LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Worshipping in the Darkness

*Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil, for You are with me. (Psalm 23:4, NASB)*

Father, sometimes all I can do is worship You in the darkness.

Sometimes, whether from sickness, sorrow, or
    moods I can't control or understand,

I can't sense Your presence.

I can't feel Your love.

I can't see You working.

I can't span the distance between us.

You offer no explanations.

You seem silent,
    unconcerned,
    gone.

But God, I know You are my Father.

I know You are always good.

I know You are always here, even when I can't see You or feel You.

So even when the darkness engulfs me,

I will remember who You are, and

I will worship You, praise You, and trust You.
