LEAD-IN DEVOTIONAL READING:

Reflection on Psalm 54

Almighty God,
Holy God,
Father God,

Your enemy is my enemy.

I know that I will encounter the evil one – he tempted holy Jesus, and he will tempt me.

But I don't know where, or when, or how I will meet him.

His tools are
doubt,
discouragement,
distraction, and
illicit desire.

Sometimes he comes with a whisper and sometimes with a shout, sometimes aggressively and
sometimes subtly,
hoping to slip in unrecognized.

But in the wilderness,
Jesus showed me the way to victory over him.

Satan repeatedly tried to turn His eyes away from His Father and toward His own needs and desires.

Jesus continued to look to You,
point to You, and
trust in You,

His
dearly-loved,
glorious,
all-sufficient Father.

As He did, Satan could not lure Him or frighten Him.

Father, when faced with the enemy,
no matter how he comes,

help me to keep looking to You and trusting You.
