

The Lord's Prayer Paraphrased

Father, may Your name be glorified today, not mine.

May You be completely in charge of this world, not me, not us.

May Your will be done today,
not mine.

What we need most and want most is Your name, Your kingdom, Your will here on earth just as it is in heaven.

Father, we simply ask You for today's provision for today's needs.

Forgive us for the wrongs we do as we forgive those who wrong us.

Guard us from desiring the wrong, and deliver us from anything that would displease You.

Father, may all the authority, all the power, and
all the glory

be Yours and Yours alone, forever and ever!

Amen.

All rightness begins with a right attitude toward God, the Source and Goal of all.

*Look to Him,
worship Him,
trust Him,
treasure Him above all.*
